

Boost Your Attraction Power :

12 Love and Money Alchemy Principles to Thrive in Your Business!

If you still think that money is not important, PRACTICE the following mindset principles, and check each box when it's become a proven habit installed in your life:

- o Money is important!

Think about the fact that the amount of money you attract will determine where you'll live, the type of house you'll be living in, where your children will go to school, the trips you do, the gifts you give, the quality of what you eat, the quality of the clothes you wear ... Think about the quality of life it brings you.

- o I take responsibility for my financial success

When you don't have money, you don't have power.

- o I decide I want to love and respect money

It starts with you. It starts with YOU wanting to love and respect money.

- o I love money ;o)

Love money because you know what money can do. You know how you feel as a man or a woman who stands in its power with money. And this feeling gives you the courage and confidence to develop your activity, which serves and helps more people through your clients, and serves and helps more people through the team you employ, these people to whom you give work.

- o Money enables me to give to individuals or charities that I take to heart

What a feeling of happiness! Money fills your heart with gratitude and allows you to feel that you're on the path you have chosen. When you love and respect money, you will naturally want to appreciate it, to take care of it and to nourish it. Money will help you do great things for you and others.

12 Love and Money Alchemy Principles to Thrive in Your Business!

- o Money is your ally

Money can do extraordinary things. Money is not only a physical thing. It's just like all the energy in the Universe. There's a secret loving power to money.

- o My current experience with money represents the old me

Abundance, lack, feast and famine: this is your past.

- o Money helps me to embrace new ways of thinking, new paradigms, and to take new actions that transform my experience with it

You will act differently, and these actions are very simple and easy. Easier than working hard. If you want to work, why not work and become rich?

- o Money helps me feel nice now that financial stress is gone

If you want to be nice, you can be nice and poor. Or you can be nice and rich. Being nice and rich is much more FUN!

- o Money cannot rescue me, especially not rescue me from my fears

Money is your privileged business and life partner and is here to challenge you to be your best self.

- o My money will always see me as more powerful and creative than I see myself.

Money shows you the way to your potential, and helps you manifest this higher potential into the world.

- o Money is my coach to more Love and Gratitude

Why? Because money is Love and Appreciation in disguise.

It's never only about money!
